

A HARTY PHILOSOPHER.
"Me don't want to say 'good night,'
Want to say 'good morning,'
Lapsed my little man in white,
My suggestions soaring.
"But 'tis night, my baby dear—
Darkness and not dawn—
"Don't want it to be dark, come here
And play it's nice 'good morning."
Dear philosopher and sage,
Night with day adorning,
Always through life's darkened page
Keep your glad "good morning."
—Mrs. M. L. Rayne

Plain or Pretty.
The great burning question of the hour is: Has the pretty girl become a terror in the land?
The London girl who eloped with her father's coachman the other day was pretty.
The Paris belle who recently poisoned her husband is spoken of in the papers as very pretty.
The Berlin bride who became stage-struck and joined a traveling theatrical company, looked decidedly pretty.
The New York maiden, who drowned herself because her young man could "only be a brother" to her, was exceedingly pretty.
The pretty girl, therefore, instead of being a thing of beauty and a joy forever, is often a delusion and a snare.

Japanese Girl at an American School.
The first young Japanese girl of the high nobility who has ever come to this country for an education is now studying at Ogontz, Pa., in the school conducted there by Miss Frances K. Bennett. Many young men of rank have come from Japan to this country to pursue their studies, and during the past few years there have been several young women of good social standing in our girls' colleges. But until very recently the prejudice existing among Japanese aristocrats against sending their daughters out of the country for an education has been too strong to be overcome. The father of Miss Bennett's pupil is, however, a man of advanced ideas, and it is hoped that when the young girl returns to her own country she may carry with her many ideas which may prove of substantial benefit to the other women of her class.

She is a young woman of great refinement and has the exquisite courtesy which is said to be essentially Japanese. So long as the mild weather continued she wore her national costume, but this is a little fitted to this climate that she has found it wise to exchange her picturesque garments for the ordinary garb of an American school girl.

Lady's Waist With Yoke and Blouse Front.

DESCRIPTION NO 7553.

The box-pleated blouse variety of the separate waist is at present the favorite, and the model here shown has another popular feature—the yoke top. It is made over a fitted lining and fastens invisibly in the center front under the box-pleat, the yoke being hooked over on the left side. Some of the richest waists of silk made in this style have the yoke of embroidered batiste with the lower sleeves of the same. A handsome waist of figured silk was made in this way with the blouse front of chiffon; two colors being used, one over the other. Green of the mignonette tone and dull yellow are good combined in this way with a light silk showing these colors in the figure. Dull rose and dull green made another pretty combination, and the use of a third color over two bright tones make a delightful rainbow effect. The collars of such waists are made of the chiffon, the colors being intertwined or laid one over the other. A wash silk waist after this model was tastefully trimmed with full ruffles of narrow valenciennes lace of a creamy tint which outlined the yoke and edged the box-pleat. Wash fabrics for morning and evening wear make up charmingly with yokes of lace over a plain color, such as plain blue with lace for the yoke and striped blue and white for the rest of the waist. A checked pink and brown was made with a waist of plain pink, the yoke and lower sleeves being of the checked goods to match the skirt. This idea might be carried out in any fabric of silk or wool.

This pattern comes in six sizes, from 34 to 40 bust measure. A medium size will require 5 yards of 21 inch goods or 21 yards of 42 inch goods.

Do not make complaint of non-receipt of pattern until seven days have elapsed.

Always give number of pattern wanted, just measure for waist, bodice, skirt and jacket. Give waist measure for skirt, and skirt measure for jacket. Include 10 cents to pay mailing and handling expenses for each pattern wanted.

CONSPIRACY OF THE MONEY POWER!

BANKERS PLOT TO ENSLAVE THE PEOPLE—BRIBING THE PRESS—CREATING PUBLIC OPINION.

FIRST ROUND.

A casual glance at the circulars, letters, etc., here given will forever remove from any fair mind any doubt as to the existence of a "Money Power" or that this "Power" manipulates government officials and bribes the old party press in its interest. The three main links in the chain are the noted Bank circulars, the "Money Power" and the "Press."

The following has in substance been frequently published, but this TIME CIRCULAR reproduces word for word from the Inter-Ocean of the date named. As evidence of the fact that the attempt to bribe the Press which was resented by the Inter-Ocean was general, we note the fact that many daily papers throughout the country published the identical article which the Inter-Ocean, refusing to endorse, exposed in the following manner:

Inter-Ocean, Monday, Oct. 29, 1877.

The Inter-Ocean acknowledges the receipt of the following singular document which came to its office from New York, Saturday morning:

THE AMERICAN BANKERS' ASSOCIATION, 247 Broadway, Room 4.

NEW YORK, Oct. 9, 1877.

Strictly Private.

DEAR SIR:—Please insert the enclosed printed slip as a matter of course in the editorial page of your issue.

Immediately following the receipt of this, and send marked copy with the bill to your truly,

J. B. HAZZARD, Sec'y.

Comments on the slip, not to exceed half a column, will be paid for if filled at the same time.

The following is the document, which we are asked to insert as a matter of course in the editorial page of your issue, as a statement made by the Inter-Ocean:

"The greenback party has offered through its managers to sell out to the democrats and hereafter to work in the interest of the labor of one class, under the stimulus of wages, being more productive than that of two slaves, toiling under the dread of the lash."

Hazzard Was Here.

STATE OF INDIANA, County of Posey, J. S. S.

James G. Nisbett, being duly sworn, deposes and says: "I am seventy-three years of age and live in Posey county, Indiana, where I have resided for sixty-five years. In 1861, I and Sheridan Anderson who is now dead, of the same county enlisted in the service of the United States army, sixtieth regiment of Indiana infantry. In July, 1862, our company was ordered to join the forces of General Dumont at Lebanon, Ky. About the 25th of the same month, Mr. Anderson and myself were detailed as guards and placed on police duty on Main street, and passing near the General's headquarters we were halted and ordered to 'show up' a party of three persons—one woman and two men—who were then passing on the opposite side of the street, find out their business and report. We learned that one man and the woman were Kentuckians and the other man was an Englishman. We had considerable conversation with the Englishman who gave his name as Charles Hazzard. He said he had recently come from England to confer with the business men of this country in a financial scheme. We told him that we were looking for a very large body of very busy men and as representatives of headquarters we desired tangible information of his business. He explained that he was a very business and allay any suspicion that might have arisen regarding him. This occurred in the postoffice and we then returned to our headquarters. General Dumont at headquarters, giving him the circular in the presence of several officers who happened to be present at the time. An exact copy of that document was kept by us and the circular is a correct reading of the same."

(Here follows the Hazzard circular.)

SECOND ROUND.

This one issued October 9, 1877, by New York bankers to the National Bankers.

The Buell Letter.

DEAR SIR: It is advisable to do all your power to sustain each prominent newspaper and weekly newspaper, especially the agricultural and religious press, as will oppose the issuing of greenback paper money, and that the Sun publish the document with some alterations which are not written from all applicants who are not writing to oppose the government issue of coin. Let the government issue the coin and the bank issue the paper money of the country, for then we can better protect each other. To repeal the law creating national bank notes, or to restore to government the power of issue of money will be to provide the people with money, and will therefore seriously affect your individual profit as bankers and lenders. See your congressman at once, and engage him to support our interests that we may control legislation.

This Buell "Letter" is not the only instance in which the Money Power will carry 400 to 600 persons, so that with well-filled trains the cost is not more than 25 cents a passenger's ticket. The expenses of railway traffic are taken into account in figuring the 80 cent. cost per train mile (every train mile has to bear its proportion of rebates, corruption money and innumerable wastes).

The railways could take 400 people on one train from Philadelphia to Chicago for $1 each, and cover all expenses, labor, wear, and taxes, rebates, lobby fees and all pro rata. Two dollars for the single trip and $4 for the round trip would give the road 100 per cent profit, according to their own published estimates of the cost of moving freight, which are not too low, we may be sure. Yet during the Columbian Exposition, when it was of the highest importance that every American citizen should see the City of Beauty, the railroads charged from $17 to $20 for the trip—700 to 1200 per cent profit if the trains were full, as most of them were. Such a charge at such a time was a crime against civilization and progress.

Nicomachus.

A poem. By Grace Shaw Duff. Cloth 74 cents. The Arena Publishing Company, Copley Square, Boston, Mass.

In this fine blank-verse poem, written by the well-known New York author, Mrs. Grace Shaw Duff, is given, in autobiographical form, as from the lips of Nicomachus himself, a poetic account of the two episodes between the ruler of the Jews and Jesus, as related in the Gospels. The poem is full of local color, and opens with a striking description of sunrise on the morning of the last day of the feast of the Passover in Jerusalem. Then follows a picture of the unusual stir in the city due to the crowds attending the feast, after which there is a fine word picture of the scene in the temple, with its vendors of unsavory wares, of idlers, and of the little book is beautifully printed on first-class paper, and is finely illustrated with numerous half-tones, after the style of the popular artist, Frederick C. Gordon; and each section of the poem has a charmingly artistic vignette for the initial capital letter. The binding is in keeping with the general get-up and the book will make an admirable Christmas present.

A Question of Time.

I kissed her at ten,
For she said that I might—
We were children, when
I kissed her at ten.

It is years since then,
But 'twas only last night
That I kissed her at ten,
For she said that I might—

CAMPAIGN FUNDS SECURED.

No Able Reformer Need Longer Fear Starvation.
THE PEOPLE'S SUPPLY CO., BALTIMORE, MD., HAS BEEN SUCCESSFUL IN ACQUIRING THE SINEWS OF WAR FOR THE BATTLE AGAINST PLUTOCRACY.

The problem of diverting the stream of wealth that has heretofore flowed into the pockets of rich plutocratic wholesalers and manufacturers as profits on staple package articles used by the people, into the treasury of reform, has been solved. Success has been achieved and the People's Supply Company is now distributing immense quantities of Starch, Soap, Baking Powder, Blacking, Ink, Tea, Cocoa, Cigars, and Smoking Tobacco to all parts of the United States. All of the dividends from all of the sales made by the People's Supply Company until the election of a Populist President goes to the People's Party cause.

Every article sold by the People's Supply Company is wrapped in a Populist literature.

All its advertising is done in Populist papers and every one of its agents and traveling salesmen is a Populist organizer and missionary.

You can not assist Populism in any other way more effectively than by assisting that your grocer keep on hand a stock of package goods bearing the "Joan of Arc" trade mark. This trade mark is the picture of Cleora Eugenia Cooke, Maryland's Joan of Arc—the seventeen-year-old girl who challenged Senator Gorman to meet her in open debate—and who helped to defeat this gentleman at the last State election.

Two Populists can do much more for Populism by insisting, induce their grocer to handle "Joan of Arc" goods. Seeing these goods others will buy, and from the effort of two men a steady income will accrue to the Populist cause that otherwise would have gone to swell the private fortunes of the enemies of our cause—cheap, lately rich, imitators of foreign aristocracy.

STIFFNESS WEAR KNEES AND BACKS.

Joan of Arc Finest Gloss Starch, is not guaranteed to stiffen the back-bone of toadies and sycophants to monopoly when, as Sam Jones says, it is only a cord running up their backs, but the People's Supply Co. does stake its reputation and its future success on the statement that this Starch is the very finest starch manufactured anywhere in the world and stiffens into perfect form any cloth upon which it is used. It can be used with cold water or can be boiled in a smaller quantity than any other starch. With every package of Starch is a cake of pure white polishing wax, which gives an extra high polish to table-cloths and silverware. The gems of Populist literature accompanying each package helps to give strength to weak knees that tremble from uncertainty of purpose—and the profits which accrue to the company from your purchases give new hope for the immediate victory of our common cause. Starch comes in 10 cent pound packages.

RAISES THE SPIRITS OF POPULISTS.

Joan of Arc Baking Powder comes in 5 cent bottles and in 5, 10 and 20 cent cans. Quarter of a pound for 5 cents. This Powder not only raises bread and biscuits quicker and more satisfactorily than any other but its wonderful sale has raised the spirits of all the poor reformers heretofore discouraged for want of weapons and equipment to properly meet the enemy. Wherever it has been introduced it has become the most popular brand on the market. Webb & Co., the largest grocery house in Crisfield, Maryland, sold four dozen within a few days after introducing it there and ordered a gross immediately, saying: "It sells like hot cakes and is by all means the best in the market."

CLEANLINESS NEXT TO GODLINESS.

Purity Soap, a laundry soap, will cleanse everything except the stained and perfumed souls of old party politicians. It is a special Populist brand.

THE PEOPLE'S SUPPLY CO., BALTIMORE, MD.
